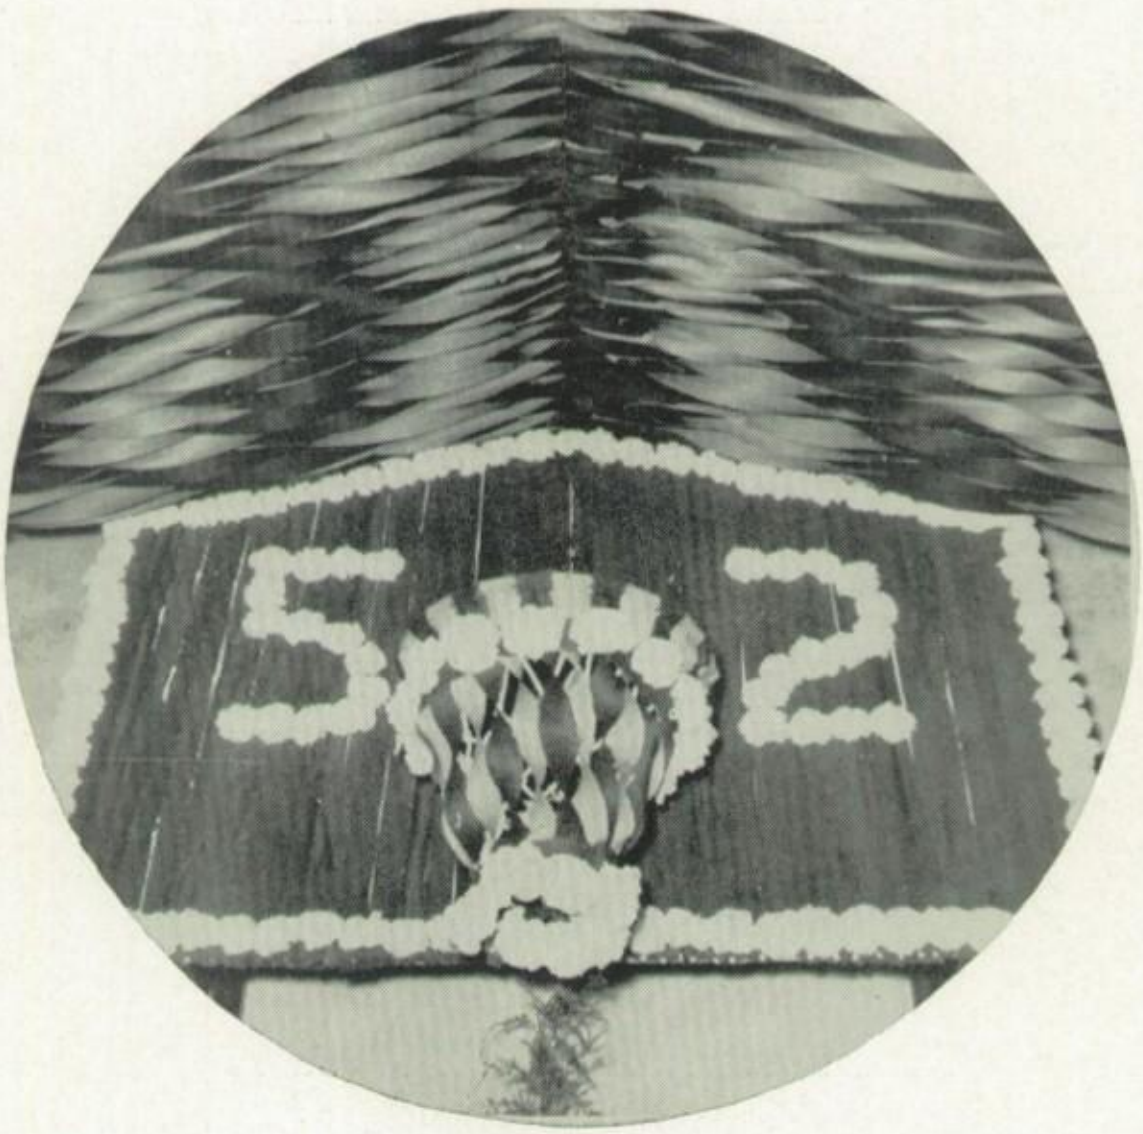
A Night



Queen For

Tomorrow

Since that was the finale they proceed down the hall past the other sound stages. At last they pass number 53, and whom should they see squeezing out of the door, "Aunt Jemina" who is being played by the very healthy and former classmate, MARION ERNST.

Directly across they see the "Welcome Travelers Program" going on the air. The first traveler being introduced by the M.C., MR. ERNEST STEWART, is the former MISS SYLVIA GENSEMER and her "Cheaper By The Dozen" Family. She is going West to meet her husband who is a mechanic and she is traveling in a private plane owned and flown by MR. GERALD FISHER, a multi-millionaire.

Miss Heffley now takes them to an altogether different show. It is the "Voice of Firestone" to be conducted by MR. WILLIAM GATES with his soloist for the evening concert to be the now famous soprano, "MISS PERLE TRISCH'E". We also find out that all the stage equipment has been drawn by MISS GLORIA PIERSOL and her able assistant, MISS DOROTHY EBERLY.

The next program they shall witness is the very educational "Meet the Press." They are told tonight is to be a very different meeting, with four famous people from all trades of higher life. The chairman of the forum is MR. PAUL BUCKS, who has risen to fame in the field of higher sciences. His panel is composed of MR. JAMES STAYER, a foreign minister, MR. DONALD KEGERISE, a big league athlete, MR. LEE SHOBER, a well-known manufacturer, and MR. ROLAND GEHMAN, a professional dare-devil.

It is now quite late and as they leave the studio their car is brought to the door by the capable garage attendant, LEON WOLF.

Slowly driving down the main street they come to the docks along the Cocalico River. Stopping for a cup of coffee at one of the restaurants they are seated with two Air Force stenographers, the MISSES ERLENE HIRNEISEN and RUTH YOST, who have just returned from abroad where they have visited the former NANCY HAGY now living in France with her Naval commissioned husband. Coming home aboard the ship was MRS. JANE STAYER and her husband who has now completed his foreign stay.

Next to the dock restaurant they see the Brokerage office of KRICK and LUTZ, Inc., new but prosperous brokers. Their new and modern building has been designed by the great architect, WILLARD PENNABECKER.

Since it is very late the girls speed back to the base. As they drive hastily along who should stop them but a Motorcycle Police. Oh! what a break. The cop is none other than their former classmate, TED HASSLER.

The Years of

As WAFs SANDRA GETZ and BETTY SHOWERS enter T-V City, Pennsylvania, a minor replica of Radio City, New York, they see sprawling in front of them the hugh office of RICHARD STEWART, C. P. A. and treasurer of the large television studio. This studio presenting Channel 53 for this area has a staff of thirty-two men and women.

As they enter, the secretary, LORRAINE HEFFLEY, greets them with a cordial smile and takes them on a tour of the studio. Passing the first sound stage they see RICHARD SWEIGART, now a Professor of Aueronautics at Cocalico State University. Seated at a table with Professor Sweigart is MISS JUDITH RATHMAN, a student pilot, who is being interviewed for the benefit of listeners and viewers. Another guest will be the famous paratrooper, LT. CHARLES STAMM, who has now completed his 100th jump.

Since this is the busy time of day when all the sound stages are in progress they happen to see quite a few different shows. One of the most educational, they are told, is the "Television Farmer." The meeting today is to be conducted by a progressive farmer's wife, the former VERNA KAY KLINE. One of her guests will be the noted editor, MR. LARRY SHIMP. It surely seems to be their lucky day, meeting so many former classmates.

It is now lunch time and as the hostess, MISS JANE DAILY, takes them to their seats they are met by a pleasant waitress, JOANNE LUTZ, who explains to them that the restaurant is now under new management. After their dinner is served they are sitting and talking leisurely over a cigarette when who walks in, none other than the new and capable manager, RICHARD STRICKLER.

Traveling again through the halls they are astounded by some loud clanging noise. It is none other than the boisterous CLIFFORD SHUPP, still blowing off as much steam as ever, playing the role of "Oscar Mayer" in a commercial.

Turning at the next hall they see the larger sound stages. Now going on in number one is the famous "Arthur Godfrey". Mr. ROBERT REBER, who has finally risen to that point is now doing his weekly commercial introducing the Toni Twins, PEGGY SHOBER and PEGGY SHOWALTER. Right after that Arthur has a treat in store for young and old alike. His company has elected him to introduce the winner of the new Toni Contest. The next act on the program is Arthur's other guests who have now taken over the role of the deceased Abbott and Costello. They are using the name of "PUDGO" HAWS and "LEGSO" FASSNACHT.

Now for the Contest winner, "Mrs. Toni of 1963", the former MISS SHIRLEY FISHER who is always seen cruising from one end of the United States to the other and who was not to be found upon announcement of the winner.

I, Leon Wolf, will my curly hair to John Weinhold.
I, Kay Kline, will my inquisitiveness to Betty Vogel.
I, Nancy Hagy, will my musical talent to Irene Kauffman.
I, Roland Gehman, will my carefree attitude to Jean Zerbe.
I, Donald Kegerise, will my one love affair to Lenora Shenk.
I, Parke Haws, will my fatness to Marion Brubaker.
I, Lorraine Heffley, will my shyness to Harry Gross.
I, Clifford Shupp, will my basketball ability to Harold Weitzel.
I, Shirley Fisher, will my happy-go-lucky attitude to Pauline Pennebecker.
I, Richard Stewart, will my artistic ability to Dale Kilhefner.
I, Richard Strickler, will my bashfullness to Robert Gensemer.
I, Joanne Lutz, will my industrious technique to Anna Mae Yost.
I, Ruth Yost, will my many love affairs to Louise Stafford.
I, Willard Pennabecker, will my ability to play ping-pong to Lillie Ross.
I, Marion Ernst, will my short walk to school to Minetta Martzall.
I, Erlene Hirneisen, will my typing ability to Dale Shober.
I, Lee Shober, will my quick temper to Kenneth Fassnacht.
I, Peggy Shober, will my giggling to Marion Meckley.

Witnessed this twenty-ninth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three.

Class of 1953 (SEAL)

Signed, published, and declared by the above-mentioned testators to be their first and last Will and Testament, in the presence of us who at their request have subscribed our names, in their presence, and in the presence of each other.

Lines From The Past

Long ago, in 1949, some sixty of us boys and girls from Denver and West Cocalico became that year's crop of freshmen. We all had to get acquainted with the high school and each other. Back in those long gone days Mr. Krick was principal; Mr. Lutz, social studies teacher; Mr. Bucks, as he's been from almost the beginning of time. Miss McCleaf laid out the welcome mat for us and two new teachers, Jane Frey and Robert Reber, who were also starting high school. Even then, as freshmen, our boys held important positions on the successful basketball and newly organized baseball teams.

As sophs, several of the perennial freshmen who had made more than their share of disturbance, dropped out of our midst, but we were still a very big class. That year we were all certain that we were grown up and went to work as a unit to get money for the big activities which lay ahead of us as upper classmen. With outstanding beginner's luck, we were responsible for some highly successful skating parties and a dance. That year we got our first articles of class hardware, coats and jackets. Finally the year came to an end as we initiated another group of scared eighth graders.

With the junior year came class sweaters, rings, and hats. We really had a wardrobe by then. That year we also tacked the pennant belonging to the Denver High Intramural Softball Champions in our homeroom.

The class put on the same old round of skating parties and dances, but one activity cast a big shadow over the entire year. It was the Junior-Senior Prom.

By the end of March we were already cutting, crinkling, and rolling crepe paper. Then the big wires were strung from one end of the gym ceiling to the other and the great work began. Although discouraged and almost beaten more than once by falling ladders and the Big Rains, on May 9 the place was beautiful. With music supplied by Johnny Slote's "Starlighters", a full moon presented by the good Lord, and the atmosphere achieved by us, the prom was one of the best ever.

That year, also, our boys provided much of the winning punch for the Cocalico Union baseball team as it took the first sectional championship our high school has had in the last ten years.

And now our senior year has successfully closed. Due to the fact that some people had joined our class as well as left it along the way, we were the largest class to graduate from D. H. S.

We took the softball pennant with us, contributed an important part in making up Cocalico Union's first football squad, and were indispensable to this year's basketball and baseball teams. We sponsored dances, stunned the town with our senior play, had the thrill of going through our own graduation exercises, and eventually went to Washington in our last great adventure together. It has been great fun and a wonderful lesson in co-operation to each and every one of us to be a part of a great high school class.

Ruth L. Yost

"RUTH"

One of the few class blondes, Ruth is considered among the prettiest girls in our class. Her great efficiency in commercial subjects will certainly lead her steadily to her goal as a secretary.

As a business manager for Curtis Campaign, she has steered the group successfully. She is a regular attendant at all class meetings and is always willing to help when the situation calls for it.

Ruth is uncertain whether she will attend college or not. Her future outlook is very bright and as yet she has not given her heart to anyone of her many admirers.

As assistant photography editor, Ruth contributes her time freely and we know she will do this in anything that may come her way.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Girls' Chorus 1, 2; Arts and Crafts Club 1, 2; Vox Staff 4.

Leon Wolf

"CORKY"

"Corky" is one of the shortest fellows in our class. All 64 inches of him are filled with energy and vitality. His sparkling personality is not only confined to the classroom but also a refreshing contribution to our senior frolics.

Driving the Dodge or motorbike, Leon roams the hills and dales of neighboring hamlets seeking feminine pulchritude for companionship.

One of the six seniors in the junior home room, "Corky" helps to keep it from becoming monotonous. The activity period on Friday finds him blowing the French horn with the Senior Band.

His dark curly hair is the envy of many a girl, but thus far none of them has succeeded in capturing his heart.

Leon, we feel, will be a great asset to the Naval Forces. Smooth sailing, "Corky".

Pearl Treisch

"PEARL"

An ardent Schoeneck enthusiast, Pearl confines the realm of her activities to this small village nestled among the hills. Frequently she is accompanied by a tall, dark male citizen of this community.

Pearl is a willing supporter of the girls' gym classes. Whether holding down the first base bag or hurling them from the mound, she is always energetic and cooperative. On the roller skating rink she keeps the wheels moving. All classes can count on this blonde girl to be present at all rink activities.

She is a quiet but industrious student. In class, she can be depended upon to have the answer.

Her future is unknown even to her. But a fortune teller would probably read her palm and predict, "a model housewife".

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Girls' Chorus 1, 2; Arts and Crafts Club 1, 2, 4.

Richard Sweigart

"DICK"

With a comical attitude, "Dick's" wise cracks distinguish him as the class comedian. His ability to express things in an unexpected way adds to the hilarity of the seniors.

An all-around sportsman, he enjoys hunting, fishing, and trapping to which "Dick" eagerly looks forward each year.

"Dick", who is usually seen with his buddy, "Legs", can often be located indulging in the indoor sports at the Adamstown Recreation Center. However, the feminine population of this small burg is the other attraction, in addition to pool, which lures this rangy lad in that direction.

As a member of the Air Force crew, "Dick" will be an alert, keen-eyed aviator. Class presumption predicts "Swig" to be a flying success.

Richard Strickler

"DICKIE"

When we see a flash of red coming down the hall, we know it's "Dickie". His wavy red hair is the envy of many a classmate.

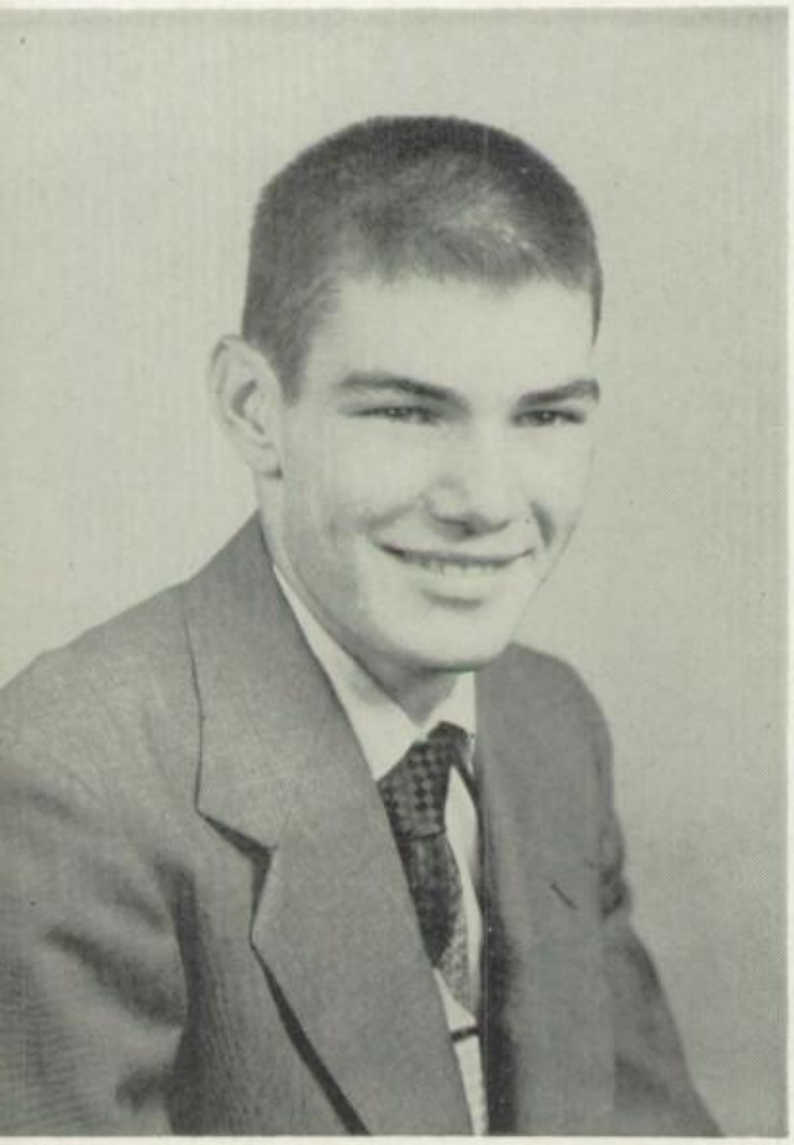
Although "Dickie" is on the quiet side, he can be seen at all class activities. He is one of the best supporters of all sports. If there is any work to be done, "Dickie" is always around to do it. He is also a faithful member of the band. Wherever the band goes, this trombonist goes.

This past summer "Dickie" spent his time in the Akron Shoe Factory. When school started we are all sure they hated to see him leave.

"Dickie", a good German student, has chosen the teaching of that subject for his future ambition. We are sure you will make a fine teacher and we wish you the best of luck.

Boys' Chorus 1, 2; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 1.

Richard Stewart



"DICK"

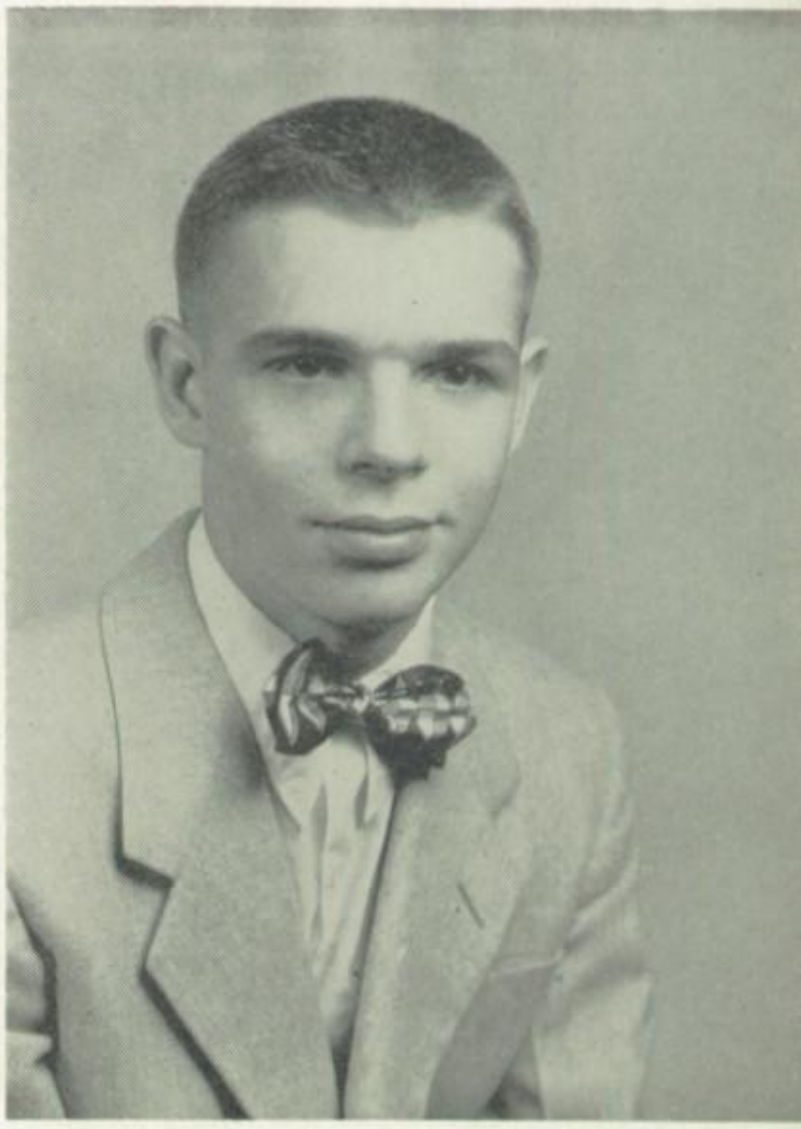
The dependable, active participant in all necessary fields of school work is he. "Dick's" artistic abilities are portrayed by his variety of posters and yearbook sketches. The duties completed by him as literary editor will never be forgotten because of their quality.

His mechanical traits are not only limited to carrying out the tasks as garage attendant at the Gulf service station but also displayed by keeping his Henry J. in ship-shape condition.

"Dick's" diligent and faithful studying in bookkeeping has made him the class crutch in this subject. For this reason we are assured that prosperity will be acquired by Richard as a future C. P. A.

Intramural Baseball 3, 4; Boys' Chorus 2, 3; Special Chorus 4; Sports Club 2; Vox Staff 4; Football 4; Art 3, 4; Basketball Manager 4.

James Stayer



"JIM"

The brain of our class and a very helpful student, "Jim" can usually be found with his head buried in a book. As editor of the HI-NOTES, James is striving for a newspaper written by the students for the students.

His extra curricular activities range from managing the basketball team to taking occasional trips to Safe Harbor.

During his junior year, Stayer capably executed his duties as class president. He was largely responsible for an exceptionally successful Junior-Senior Prom. He also sparked the class in all its functions.

His plans for the future are hazy, but with his versatility, "Jim" will excel in whatever he tackles. The professional field will probably be the main scene of his endeavors.

As he leaves these portals, we wish him the best of all.

Charles Stamm

"CHARLIE"

The South has given some of its population to the Denver High School in the form of Charles. Lexington, North Carolina, is the place he lately hailed from.

In the junior home room, Charles is one of the six seniors who helps to keep the place lively. His special category is "the oldest member of the class of 1953".

Charles is also the class's most traveled member. A travelogue of his journeyings would make an interesting publication. In either the Army or Navy, he hopes to continue his roamings around the world.

Coming from the densely wooded area of the South, Charles was a potential lumber man in his former location.

May life be kind to you, Charles.

Clifford Shupp

"SHUPPIE"

Hot Dog! Here is the boisterous Oscar Mayer of our class, "Shuppie", by name. He is the short, peppy spark who aids us in all class functions and school athletic activities.

His salesmanship ability has been displayed in the past two years by the many subscriptions he has obtained during the Curtis Magazine Campaign.

"Shuppie" was at one time a member of the Senior Band but he has now turned his skill over to the yearbook staff as Business Assistant.

Clifford might be short but that does not detract from his adroitness on the basketball floor. His steady shots have made him an invaluable player.

After commencement, "Shuppie" would like to enlist his services in the submarine division of the Navy. May your look through the periscope find you a happy landing, Clifford.

Betty Showers

"BETTY"

Dark, natural curly hair, the desire of many a classmate, is only one of the characteristics which makes Betty an attractive girl. Betty's mischievous eyes and infectious chuckle render her an invigorating companion to both sexes.

Betty is another one of the many Denverites who spends her time and earns her money at the Howard Johnson Restaurant. Here she intelligently fills her role as cashier.

In school Betty devotedly spends her time on her regular curriculum studies; nevertheless, her study halls are not limited to this. She seeks, in addition, knowledge that brings her up to date on the latest occurrences of the young people of the community.

Whatever allowance the future has for you, Betty, we express our assurance of prosperity hereafter.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Girls' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 4; Special Chorus 3, 4.

Peggy Lou Showalter

"SHOVIE"

Dabbling in photography, Peggy was chosen as the photography editor for the 1953 VOX. When any class member least expects it, there is a flash of light, the click of a camera and Peggy with her trusty equipment.

Not satisfied with confining her interests to this field, she also enjoys letting her emotions express themselves in her literary efforts. Her rapid stroke penned many a senior writeup.

Peggy could probably be classified as the class conversationalist. She can talk fluently upon any subject at great length. This characteristic is quite evident in study halls.

As for her interests after school, Peggy finds diversified opportunities waiting for her. If she is the world's greatest journalist or the most enthusiastic physical education teacher, Peggy will enjoy her future occupation.

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2; Intramural Basketball 3; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3; Phys. Ed. Instructor 4; Vox Staff 4; Arts and Crafts Club 2; County Band 3.

Peggy Ann Shober

"PEGGY"

Vivacious, pert, neat, tidy, Peggy is the spark of the general course. Flashing blue eyes, natural wavy hair, she is quick and correct in all that she does.

When senior character studies for the yearbook were being written, Peggy was an invaluable penman. Her fine mastery of the English language and her excellent use of adjectives added much to the color of the literary quality of our publication.

She is one of the few seniors who has given away her heart. Our tall president often is seen seeking advice from her and not only secretarial hints, either.

Peggy's goals in life are multitudinous. Her variety of abilities will make her an excellent citizen of any rural community. As you go into life, Peggy, may you keep all your notes as well as you have for the class of "53".

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Cheerleader 2, 3; Class Secretary 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1, 2; Arts and Crafts Club 2.

Lee B. Shober

"SHOBER"

Do you hear a noise in study hall that sounds like a twenty-piece band? Well! It's only "Shober". He can usually be seen either trotting down to Mr. Gates with his trusty trombone or flirting with some girl in study hall. After school Lee can usually be seen loafing at the F. & M. Hat Co.

But on any senior project, he's always willing to help — for example — when he fell off the ladder while decorating for the prom. This mischievous little boy is interested in electrical contracting and intends to go to Stevens Trade. After this hitch, his plans include the Navy and training in electrical engineering.

We're sure you'll get a good shock out of life, Lee.

Intramural Baseball 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Band 4; Basketball 1.

Larry Shimp

"SHIMPIE"

"Whoops", girls, there goes "Shimpie", who was at one time called the class Romeo. A tall, well-built, reddish-brown-haired lad, he is popular with either sex.

In his freshman and sophomore years, "Shimpie" was considered quite a sportsman. He participated in basketball, baseball, tennis, and other minor sports, while in his junior and senior years he dropped basketball and took up the more rugged football.

Friday afternoons he can either be seen playing a slide trombone in the band or lugging equipment along as Assistant Photography Editor of the VOX.

As his future ambition, "Shimpie" has chosen to wear the Navy blues. The class wishes him high sailing into the future.

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Intramural Softball 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2; Baseball 1, 2, 4; Football 4; Vox Staff 4.

Judith Ann Rathman

"JUDY"

"Judy" is the attractive, jovial girl of the class. Her chattering can be heard in many a study hall. "Judy" has been a lively member of the cheering squad for two years and has also been a majorette in the band. At present she is one of the high-stepping color guards.

She is the proud possessor of an envied wardrobe combining choice and neatness.

"Judy" was also a member of the basketball squad. She has taken an active part in both the mixed and girls' chorus. Her long fingers can be seen flying easily over the keys of a piano or typewriter.

The class wishes you success in the future.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Cheerleader 2, 3; Arts and Crafts Club 1, 2, 4; Basketball 1, 2; Intramural Basketball 3.

Willard Pennabecker

"PENNY"

"Penny", the blue-eyed lad in our class who hails from Schoeneck, could be classified as a woman magnet — those unknowing, unsuspecting freshman girls. His slyness is greatly concealed by his quiet attitude which no longer keeps his classmates or the faculty guessing.

A neat dresser, Willard keeps up to date in the latest styles of men's fashions and does them great justice.

Willard whole-heartedly partook in dartball, ping-pong, softball, and the remaining intramural sports.

He can be seen at class functions and is an active participant in them rather than spending his evenings burning the midnight oil while studying.

His decision for the future has not yet been reached but we feel sure he will attain success. Good luck, "Penny", in whatever you do.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 4; Sports Club 2; Intramural Basketball 3, 4; Intramural Softball 3, 4; Art 3, 4; Tennis Tournament 2, 4; Arts and Crafts Club 4; Current Events 1.

Joanne Lutz

"JO"

Joanne is a faithful, hard-working friend to all. An ambitious student in school, she is also interested in earning shekels during her leisure moments. At noon time she is a waitress at Shupp's Diner. Not satisfied with this job only, Joanne also expertly does her duty as the collector of newspaper subscriptions.

One of Mr. Gates' diligent musicians, Joanne religiously reports to all rehearsals and plays a trumpet in the Senior Band. In chorus her soprano voice adds to the noise from that section.

In school Joanne is often seen conversing with Betty in study hall and classes. However, she can always be counted on to have her assignments completed.

Joanne's plans for her life after school are hazy, but whatever she does, we know she shall be victorious.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Band 1, 2, 3, 4.

Verna Kay Kline

"KAY"

Wandering around Mrs. Stayer's room during German classes, asking questions, or leafing through a dictionary — this is "Kay".

She can be found on a roller skating rink quite frequently and is a good supporter of the high school skating parties. Her ability in this sport is not only limited to this, but is also exhibited on the ice.

"Kay" is an ardent member of the band. During her sophomore year, she was chosen to represent our school as flutist at District Orchestra.

As soon as she turned sixteen, "Kay" willingly chauffeured her less fortunate classmates to school activities both at home and away.

"Kay's" plans for college were altered by a person from Quarryville who stole her heart. May there be few furrows in your future endeavors, "Kay".

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Class Treasurer 1, 2; Curtis Campaign 1, 4; County Chorus 3; County Band 1; County Orchestra 2; District Orchestra 2; Tennis Tournament 2, 3.

Donald Kegerise

"KEGGY"

"Keggy" is, beyond all doubt, one of the most talented members of our class. This big, stockily built, brown-eyed boy is one of the best athletes D. H. S. has ever produced.

Don also has the distinction of having the record romance of our class; when not playing baseball, basketball, or football, he is most often seen somewhere on North Sixth Street. In fact, Sivie, sports, and a certain amount of time spent in school make up Big Don's life.

It is in his most outstanding talent, baseball, that "Keggy" places his hopes for the future. A champ both at bat and on the mound, a professional career is what he strives for. We're all for you, Don. You're our favorite champion! !

Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 4; Band 1; Sports Club 2.

Erlene Mae Hirneisen

"ERLENE"

With twinkling brown eyes and a pleasing smile, Erlene is our chicken farmer. Early mornings find her energetically engaged in caring for the clucking, crowing brood. This before dawn activity does not hinder her from being an industrious commercial student.

Erlene is a fast, accurate typist. Her fingers fly over the keys with the greatest of ease. She is always ready to lend a helping hand to those in distress over their school work.

A great sports fan, Erlene is an active participant in those activities she likes best. Roller skating and softball are her favorites. She adds pep to the weekly gym classes.

Future plans for Erlene are several. Her coming days will be spent, in all probability, making a home for some lucky fellow.

Arts and Crafts Club 1, 2; Commercial Club 1; Girls' Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4.

Lorraine Heffley

"LORRAINE"

Lorraine, the tallest girl in our class, is an efficient worker. She is one of Mr. Reber's most diligent students. The frequency of her name on the honor roll gives evidence to the fact that she seldom wastes any time in study halls.

Her neatness and accuracy have made her a very capable business manager of the Hi-Notes. She does not confine her duties to this department only, but she also is a dependable typist.

Lorraine is an active church worker. She blends her soprano voice with those of other young people to produce melodious harmony.

Never too tired to lend a helping hand, Lorraine will find this a benefit in her life after graduation.

As you leave us, Lorraine, we extend our heartiest good wishes to you.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Chorus 1, 2; Hi-Notes Staff 2, 3, 4; Arts and Crafts Club 1.

Parke Haws

"PARKIE"

"Mr. 5 by 5" would be the perfect description for Parke. His personality can be measured by his girth. Parke is one of the most helpful members of our class; his cheerfulness and willingness have made him a comrade often to be desired.

The student manager of both basketball and baseball teams, Haws has fullheartedly carried forth his duties; his staunch support from the sidelines has spurred a championship team to victories.

Parke's favorite form of locomotion is his motorbike. Whizzing through the country-side, Parke glances hither and yon at the attractive female population of Lancaster County.

Parke will have no difficulty in retiring at an early age; he already does that at Zaring's factory. To a swell fellow we wish all the best that life has to offer.

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball Manager 2, 3, 4; Baseball Manager 2, 3, 4; Class Vice President 1.

Theodore Hassler

"TED"

"Ted" is petit and jovial. Never is there a dull moment when he is around. A great attribute in all sports, Hassler's size does not determine his ability. Often he has been the spark that started the blaze on the basketball floor. Opponents know that when "Ted" arrives on the scene action begins.

On the baseball diamond, he has many assists to his credit as he has ably held his post at second base. Not to be forgotten are his loud and lusty words of encouragement.

Although "Ted" is an ardent worker in school as well as at home, his presence can be heard and seen in any study hall where he is found.

A friend to all, Hassler will be successful in his chosen vocation. Happy sailing, "Ted".

Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Science Club 1; Sports Club 2; Intramural Baseball 3, 4; Intramural Basketball 3, 4.

Nancy Jane Hagy

"NANCY"

Intelligent, versatile, and industrious are few of the many adjectives which describe this lass with a Navy bound heart.

Nancy has been a great asset to the chorus during her four years; both as a strong alto and an ardent faithful piano player.

For three years she has been a forward on the girls' basketball team and her high scoring rendered her indispensable to the successful cooperation of the team.

As the only female member of the trio of higher mathematicians, Nancy doggedly pursues her studies in chemistry and trigonometry. Nancy's leadership ability was displayed when she successfully edited the 1953 VOX.

Although her future ambition has not yet been decided, we are positive that success will be at hand for Nancy in whatever field she may choose.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Vox Staff 4; Girls' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Class Vice President 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Tennis Tournament 2, 3; Curtis Campaign Captain 3, 4; Youth Day Councilman 3.

Sandra Jean Getz

"SUE"

"Sue", the sleek, dark-haired lass of our class is usually seen with "Fisher". Although some of her time is spent waitressing at the Howard Johnson, she still finds time for activity.

She is one of the senior members of the Student Council and serves as secretary for this organization. Her services have been rendered as an active participant for the past three years.

Sandra could well be classified as "the ten o'clock scholar" due to the fact that she barely makes the 8:25 A. M. dead line.

When "Sue" gazes into her crystal ball, she thinks she sees money bags, cars, clothes, and a handsome millionaire. Her future will be bright and rosy regardless of her achievements.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Student Council 2, 3, 4; Dramatics 1; Basketball 2.

Sylvia Gensemer

"SIVIE"

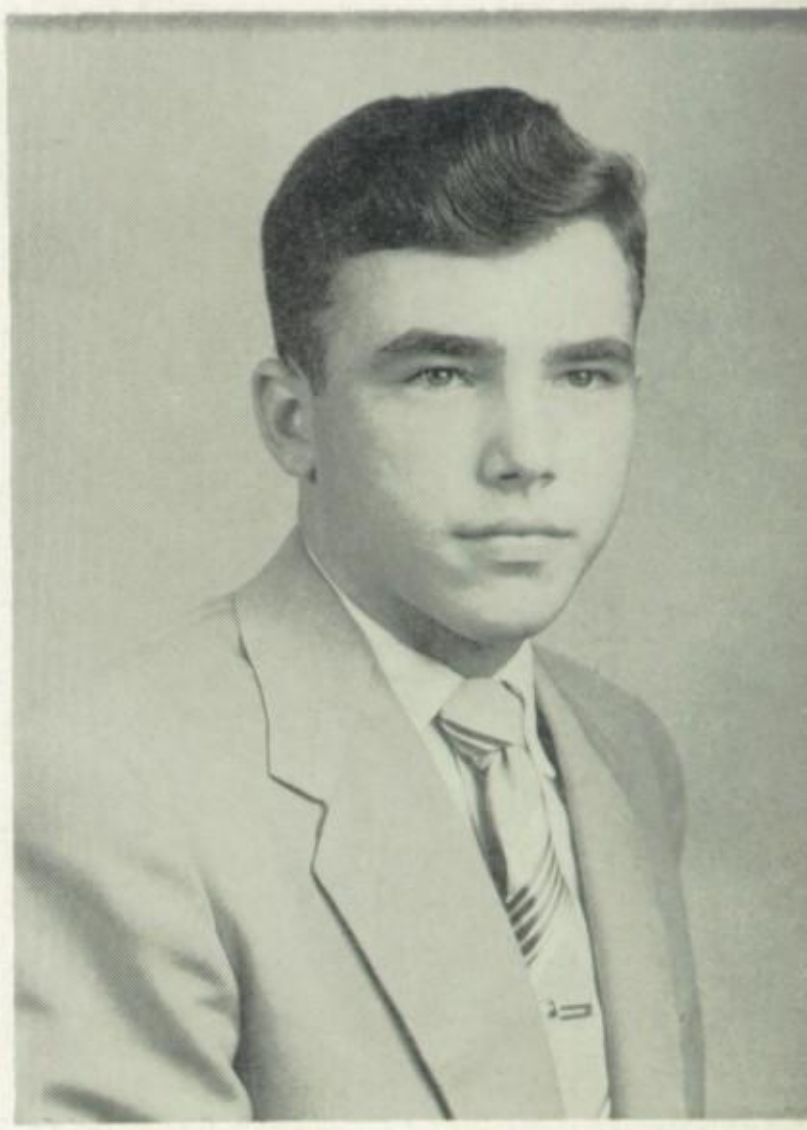
"Sivie" is the money gatherer of the class of "53". She is not satisfied only to hound the seniors for their monthly dues, but she also works her personality overtime for those extra tips at Howard Johnson's.

A staunch athletic supporter, Sylvia took her place as a senior cheerleader in the beginning of this current year. Flashing brown eyes and gleaming auburn hair have put sparkle on the cheering squad. On the girls' basketball team, as a skillful guard, Sylvia has been a threat to many opponents.

Sylvia's future is fixed. Her ambition is to be a model housewife and in that we know she shall definitely do well. As she goes on her own out into the world, Sylvia will have a full and joyous life.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 3, 4; Class Treasurer 3, 4; Dramatics 1; Arts and Crafts Club 2; Hi-Notes 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Intramural Basketball 3; Phys. Ed. Instructor 4; Cheerleader 4.

Roland P. Gehman



"ROLLY"

One of the three-letter men in our class, Roland is also a fervent tiller of the soil. In fact, his abilities are not limited by these two boundaries.

His efficiency in higher mathematics and the sciences has put him among the favored few to struggle through these branches of the school curriculum.

"Rolly" spends his study halls in the pursuit of knowledge; maintaining his name constantly on the honor roll.

As president of both the senior class and the Student Council, Roland has shown excellent executive traits. In this capacity, he has been instrumental in initiating the assembly program in Denver High School.

Whether he ventures to Alaska or stays in Lancaster County as an agricultural specialist, we are of definite assurance that Roland will be triumphant.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Boys' Chorus 1, 2; Student Council 3, 4; Vox Staff 4; Class President 1, 4; Youth Day Councilman 3; Radio Club 1; Sports Club 2; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3; Football 4; Intramural Softball 3, 4.

Shirley Fisher

"FISHER"

Here comes a black Pontiac and here comes "Fisher", the chauffeur of our class. The girl with popularity, that's our Shirley. Her popularity rating in Reinholds is high. She likes sports, no matter what they may be, but ping-pong is her specialty. She plays the piano quite well, and we enjoy her noon time serenades.

Shirley has a versatile personality and her friends are many. "Sue" and she find chattering an engaging pastime in classes and study periods. A girl without a worry, "Fisher" is carefree as a lark.

Our best wishes go with you, Shirley, no matter what you might choose to do.

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Arts and Crafts Club 1, 2, 4; Intramural Ping-Pong 2, 3.

Gerald Fisher

"JERRY"

Our newcomer from Port Carbon has been a welcome accession to our class. Although he has been chosen as the "quietest member of the class", we feel that this is probably due to the fact that we are not too well acquainted with this short, handsome lad.

"Jerry" does not let any grass grow under his feet. He quickly acquired a position at the F. & M. Hat Factory; thus he hurriedly rushes to his post of duty after school hours.

A shop and baseball fan from the coal regions, "Jerry" was active as a participant in the playground league of his native city.

In all probability, "Jerry" will enter Uncle Sam's service as a member of the Air Force. Your flying will be high as you go into the future.

Ralph Fassnacht, Jr.

"LEGS"

"Legs" is the tall, dark and handsome Nimrod of our class. This lanky lad hails from Schoeneck and can usually be seen cruising around in his grey "Chevie" doing what comes naturally.

An athletic lad, he is a great spark in any sport he attempts, be it football, basketball or baseball.

His flitting eyes can be seen sparkling with mischief at all class functions. An intelligent lad, he is also a member of the Student Council and one of the five class "Rembrandts".

"Legs" as yet has not sold his heart to any one girl and has not decided upon his future ambition but the class knows he'll succeed in whatever he attempts.

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 4; Intramural Softball 3, 4; Current Events Club 1; Sports Club 2; Student Council 3, 4; Art 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Boys' Quartet 2, 3, 4.

Marion L. Ernst

"MARION"

Marion is our tall, slender classmate. Her long agile fingers can be seen flying over both typewriter and piano keys. Although she is a commercial student, we feel quite certain that some day she will make a capable secretary.

Marion was a member of the basketball team in both her freshman and sophomore years. A supporter of class functions, she does her share willingly.

One of the five class artists, she was voted the "most artistic" girl in the class. Although Marion is not a steady dater, we are sure Mr. Right will come along and Marion's life career will be successful.

"DOT"

"Dot", the small thrifty student of our class, is a full commercial student. Once a member of the Hi-Notes staff, she has now turned her interests to the literary staff of the "53" VOX.

She is an active member of both the mixed and girls' chorus. Although "Dot" is the first arrival in school, she is still as industrious when leaving as when entering.

One of the five class "Rembrandts", the class feels sure "Dot" will succeed in any field she chooses.

If at any time "Dot" cannot be found she is usually laboring tediously behind a huge pile of books.

We feel sure she will be an asset to any social organization she may choose to enter.

Expression of Gratitude

We, the class of 1953, proudly dedicate this edition of the VOX to Mrs. George Stayer. Mrs. Stayer, who entered the halls of D. H. S. with the class of 1953, has been a friend as well as a teacher to all. Through our four years she has guided us with sympathetic understanding and helped us in our work with great enthusiasm. This is our way of showing our appreciation to someone whom we shall never forget.

Mrs. Jane F. Stayer

Introduction

Our object in the 1953 VOX is to try to relate the activities and characteristics of the class of 1953. Realizing that television has a definite place in society, we have used this theme in the publication of our annual. We also wish to preserve these memories for future hours of enjoyment and contentment.
